1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

The Fresno County Superintendent of Schools (FCSS) received a waiver for the 2023–24 Proposition 28 funds, allowing the carryover and use of funds in the 2025–26 school year. In 2025–26, FCSS continued implementation of Proposition 28 by investing in the expansion of arts and music education across internal programs and school sites. Funds were used to hire arts and music teachers, purchase essential supplies and materials, and provide professional development aligned to the visual and performing arts standards. These investments support the development of high-quality, sustainable arts programs that reflect the needs of students and align with the intent of Proposition 28.
